To County Superintendents and School

Jackson, Miss., April 24, 1884 GENTLEMEN—The undersigned wishes to gain the confidence of all parties desiring to secure the services of competent teachers. This he proposes to do by carefully selecting such teachers as will be so do by carefully selecting such teachers as will be likely to meet the special wants of the school applying to him, and by being especially careful to send none but teachers of good moral character. In applying please state distinctly the branches you wish taught, for what class in college (if any) you wish pupils prepared, the amount of salary, the nature of the guarantee and the party or partles guaranteeing, the length of term for which you wish to contract, the probable number of pupils, the population of the town or neighborhood, its mearness to railroad, to postoffice; your preference, (if any) of religious belief. It will also save much delay to make us your agent, fully authorized to contract with teachers. Indeed this is almost absointely accessary, as the correspondence that so intellectually the cessary, as the correspondence that it would be unreasonable to, in every case, expent him togo to the locality on an uncertainty. When this power is conferred upon me, I shall exercise it will every care for the interests of the parties tigs trusting me. usting me. Very respectfully,
